

Mobile Hub Staff Opportunity

Director, Performance Management and Learning, Mobile Hub

Location: US-DC-Washington

August 2015

Position Overview

The Director, Performance Management and Learning (PML) will be responsible for refining the Mobile Hub's monitoring and evaluation strategy (M&E), which aspires to advance the state-of-the-art for M&E for digital development. S/he will design, build, refine and help colleagues and grantees to use of the suite of methods, tools, reporting approaches and other levers for delivering the internal Mobile Hub PML strategy. The Director also will shape and deliver the Mobile Hub's Digital Impact initiative strategy, which aims to improve how governments, donors, industry and other decision makers assess the social and economic return on investment in digital tools for low-income segments, working with partners to build the suite of tools, methodologies, indicators and other levers necessary to build a shared approach to demonstrating the value of digital for development.

Mobile Hub Overview

The Mobile Hub is a new, $75 million global alliance to enable the digital ecosystem to deliver greater scale, efficiency and social impact as it creates more inclusive digital economies in emerging markets. Working with partners, the Mobile Hub will generate evidence of what works through a series of demonstration projects, distil insights and tools to promote scale-up and replication, and provide mechanisms to encourage knowledge sharing, collaboration and co-investment throughout the ecosystem.

The Mobile Hub is a donor-funded program hosted within the UN Foundation, and based in the UN Foundation's Washington, D.C. office. The incumbent will be an employee of the UN Foundation and in most cases, will be based in Washington. In cases where a non-U.S. location is agreed, candidates will be hired on a long-term contract basis. In any case, candidates must have prior work authorization.
