

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY of AFGHANISTAN

Position: Full-time Faculty in IT and Computer Science (Rank Open)
Report to: Chair of ITCS

The American University of Afghanistan (AUAF) is a private, non-profit university offering an American-style liberal arts education. We opened our doors in 2005 and currently offer 3 undergraduate academic majors and a new MBA program. We follow a strict non-discriminatory policy, and applicants from all ethnic, religious and economic backgrounds are encouraged to apply. We are a young, dynamic university with a student population of nearly 900 students and we hope to reach 1,000 students by the spring 2013 academic semester. Construction has recently begun on a new 75 acre international campus.

The Department of IT and Computer Science (ITCS) is seeking a qualified candidate for a full-time faculty position in ITCS to begin in Spring Semester 2013. The rank will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Responsibilities and duties:

- Teach a range of undergraduate courses in ITCS (12 credit hours per semester including lectures and labs)
- In addition to teaching, full-time faculty are required to provide service to the university in some capacity either by serving on a committee, advising students on academic affairs, or in other ways.
- Responsibilities may also include administrative work
- Although AUAF is primarily a teaching institute, research, and especially the preparation of Afghan business case studies, is highly desirable

Requirements:

- A Master's degree in Computer Science, Information Technology, Computer Engineering or related fields is required whereas a PhD in the aforementioned fields is preferred
- Prior teaching experience of the post secondary level is required
- Experience teaching in international locations and multicultural settings is preferred
- When hired, the successful applicant is expected to provide official proof of academic degrees (transcripts sent from the degree granting school directly to AUAF)

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

The American University of Afghanistan offers a generous benefits package that includes a competitive salary, air transportation, university-provided accommodation, and paid health care insurance. This is an unprecedented opportunity to teach at a newly formed American University in an emerging and rapidly changing society.

To apply, please send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching purpose, and contact information for three references to jobs@auaf.edu.af. Please include ITCS in the subject line of the email.
